Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" virtues were engraved in the House Chamber of the State Capitol in the early 1920s under the direction of the Decorating Commission with the inscription: "All the foregoing human qualities bind into one theme, the Glory of Missouri because no people attain these virtues unless they are great."; and

Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" Award was created to encourage the values held by the early leaders of Missouri and to recognize those standards as exemplified in our schools and communities by this state's young people who are the future of Missouri; and

Whereas, Katherine Elizabeth Wallach, a student at Rockwood South Middle School in Fenton, has been selected to receive the "Glory of Missouri" Award for her accomplishments in the area of PROGRESS as defined by the intent of the Decorating Commission for the Capitol in 1922: "The early Missouri Legislature saw progress as not only power and action, but a mode of careful planning and solutions."; and

Whereas, Katherine has enjoyed tremendous success in her endeavors as a Rambassador, secretary for the National Junior Honor Society, and participant in school choir, musicals, plays, and Drama Festival:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in commending Katherine Elizabeth Wallach for her noteworthy achievements in the pursuit of PROGRESS and in congratulating her at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and
